PROFILE

Looking for a sharp, creative writer? You've found one!

(or you've opened my CV by accident)

I write vibrant, lively copy for the web, radio, video games, and more.

I'm most comfortable writing with humour, but I can make anything shine through snappy phrasing and solid attention to detail.

I love working in teams, and get on really well with others, but I'm just as comfy working solo at the business end of a keyboard.

Proud owner of an inquisitive mind and a very British sense of humour.

No-one else writes like me. I guarantee it!*

EDUCATION

University of Gloucestershire, 2008-2012
(BSc. Interactive Games Design - Hons., 1st Class)

Chingford Foundation School Sixth Form, 2006-2008
(Computing, Art, Media Studies, English Language)

SKILLS

- CREATIVE WRITING (especially informal/humour)
- TEAMWORK (plays well with others)
- EDITING (I'm a stickler for grammar)
- CODING (highly computer literate, inc. HTML)
- ADAPTABILITY (will enjoy learning anything you throw at me)

ADOBE CERTIFIED ASSOCIATE
Visual, Web, Rich Media, and Video Communication
